

PlaySafe Louisiana

Can your child spot an online predator?

An interactive game that puts youth in realistic gaming scenarios to stay safe online.

In less than 15 minutes, players will learn to recognize common online predator tactics – and know what to do.

10 Quick Lessons

Real scenarios youth face everyday in online gaming and social media.

Neuroscience-Based

Learning through experience to build stronger memory.

Stop & Report Practice

Practice using an online report button – just like in a real game.

Earn a Certificate

Complete all 10 lessons to earn a printable Online Safety Certificate and Pledge.

humantrafficking.la.gov/playsafe

Scan the QR Code to Play

- Appropriate for ages 10-16.
- Less than 15 minutes to play.
- No login or download required.
- Works on any device.
- Free to play!

The Governor's Office of
HUMAN TRAFFICKING PREVENTION

This training game is provided for educational purposes only. No guarantee is made that completion of this program will prevent online predatory contact. This tool is not a substitute for ongoing conversations between parents, guardians, and children about online safety. All scenarios are fictional and created for educational use only.